As a Senior Financial Services Representative in the Principal Financial Group Pittsburgh Business Center, and with over nineteen years of experience in the financial services industry, Ed is dedicated to providing his clients with the professional and individual attention necessary to help them achieve their financial goals, offering continued service as their needs change.

Ed works closely with individuals, families and business owners developing strategies to help identify their financial needs and determine the best strategies to meet those needs. Through life insurance, disability income protection, annuities and investment products, as well as business, estate and retirement planning, he can help his clients obtain financial stability and security for their families and businesses.

Ed earned a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Pittsburgh. His professional affiliations include membership in the Pennsylvania and Pittsburgh chapters of the National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors (NAIFA) and the General Managers Association (GAMA). He is a seven time Million Dollar Round Table (MDRT) qualifier and a qualifier for Career Development and National Quality Awards. In addition, he was a former member of the Board of Directors of the Pittsburgh Life Underwriters Association.

Ed resides in Franklin Park Township with his wife Victoria and two children, Julie and Brendan.
